Opioid Addiction Treatment in Fredericksburg, VA – Dedicated and Effective Care

Welcome to SaVida Health Fredericksburg, your premier destination for opioid addiction treatment. Our clinic, staffed with expert Suboxone doctors, is at the forefront of providing respectful and compassionate care for those struggling with alcohol and opioid addiction. Our treatment is anchored in FDA-approved Medication-Assisted Treatment (MAT), complemented by counseling and support services, ensuring a holistic approach to your recovery.

Embarking on a Healing Journey

Recovery from opioid addiction is a transformative process leading to a healthier, more fulfilling life. Our treatment model in Fredericksburg, guided by experienced clinicians, incorporates medication, counseling, and ongoing support. This integrated approach is widely acknowledged as the most effective strategy for treating opioid addiction. Counseling is a key component, addressing the deeper personal and social issues accompanying addiction.

Tailored and Accessible Treatment Solutions

Our outpatient treatment facility in Fredericksburg is dedicated to making your recovery journey as accessible as possible. We offer flexible scheduling, including same-day and telemedicine appointments, to fit your lifestyle. Our licensed professionals craft personalized treatment plans, recognizing and adapting to your unique recovery path.

Commitment to Your Recovery

SaVida Health Fredericksburg provides a nurturing environment conducive to effective recovery from opioid and alcohol use disorders. Our treatment options, such as Sublocade, Suboxone, Buprenorphine, and Vivitrol, are chosen to best meet your individual needs. In addition to these treatments, we provide case management, counseling, and additional support services to aid in your long-term recovery.
